

Lyra are looking to recruit new Trustees to our board to enhance the skills and expertise of the present Board Members

Since 2012 Lyra has been building a community of children and artists who create and produce world-class live performance and art in Greater Craigmillar, Edinburgh, an area of multi-deprivation in Scotland

Lyra is based in the heart of the community, enabling free access for local children to Artspace, a 116-seat theatre and flexible studio. By supporting participants' pastoral needs, our programmes allow young people to enjoy creative activity whilst learning new skills, raising aspiration and improving confidence and self-esteem, supporting them to 'Watch, Learn and Create' across the arts

Lyra is led by founder and Artistic Director, Jo Timmins with Producer, Tony Reekie, Operations Manager, Laura Wraight, Projects and Engagement Manager, Anna Plasberg-Hill and Arts Facilitator, Natalia Barua

The board normally meet 4 times a year on Friday afternoons / evenings for approximately 2 hours. Meetings usually take place in our office at Artspace, 11 Harewood Road, Edinburgh, EH16 4NT

We are looking for individuals who feel they can bring their expertise to the board in particular areas of Fundraising, Strategic Development, PR/Marketing (including Social Media) and Human Resources although any relevant skills would be welcome

To express an interest in this opportunity please send a brief email to the Chair of Lyra, Louise Gilmour-Wills at lyra@lyra.co.uk with details of your experience and what you feel you would bring to our board

Lyra recognises the positive value of diversity, promotes equality and challenges discrimination. We welcome and encourage applicants from people of all backgrounds. If you wish to apply in a different format, please contact Lyra on 0131 659 4725 or lyra@lyra.co.uk